A contentious postal survey on same-sex marriage began in Australia Tuesday C. J. Proise Seahawks Jersey , with ballots delivered across the vast continent ahead of an expected fractious campaign between the "yes" and "no" sides.

While there has been growing support for marriage equality, with 70 percent of those surveyed in a Fairfax Media poll on Tuesday backing the "yes" campaign, Australia has yet to legalize such unions despite more than a decade of political wrangling.

The conservative government chose an unusual approach - a voluntary and non-binding postal vote - after an election promise of a national plebiscite was twice rejected by parliament's upper house, the Senate. If most Australians vote "yes" to same-sex marriage the government will hold a parliamentary free vote on changing the marriage laws. It will not do so if there is a "no" outcome.

"I encourage everyone to fill in the survey and return it. I'll be voting 'yes' as will Lucy," Prime Minister Malcolm Turnbull told commercial radio this week. Turnbull Tyler Lockett Seahawks Jersey , a moderate, is opposed by some members of his conservative ruling Liberal-National coalition on the issue and the postal vote is seen as a compromise.

The start of the ballot process followed weekend rallies for and against changing marriage laws, with thousands of people dressed in rainbow colors packing central Sydney on Sunday to back the "yes" vote.

Hundreds of "no" campaigners marched on Saturday, arguing that changes would infringe religious freedom and children's rights.

Up to 15 million Australians will be asked, "Should the law be changed to allow same-sex couples to marry?" on the ballot paper and given the option of marking "yes" or "no" boxes.

But "yes" campaigners have said this method of collecting votes Alex McGough Seahawks Jersey , via the postal system, could be less effective at engaging younger tech-savvy Australians, who are seen as more supportive of changing the laws.

National Party MPs have also voiced concern about Australia Post's abilities to deliver the ballots to rural areas across the vast country.

The postal vote will close on November 7, with the result to be released on November 15.

This previous year June of 2008, one particular of my worst nightmares came accurate. I dislocated my elbow, tore ligaments and broke two bones in my arm. I was riding my bicycle and my front tire went flat and down I went. I was unable to perform or write for 3 months.
